DR. T. A. LEMON, Would respectfully inform the public that he has secured the agency of Professor James McClintocks Celebrated Family Medicines, and has just received a full sapply which he is prepared to furnish wholesale or retail at the Proprietor's prices:

Dr. McClintock's fame as an eminent physician needs no comments from me. His medicines are the prescriptions adopted in his private practice, and as such are invaluable in all cases where it is inconvenient to call in a physician. Their sale has been unprecedented in the Eastern and Northern states. They have effected recorded.

We would call attention at this season, first to Dr McClintocks Pectoral syrap f r Bronchitis Scleet and Concentrated Powders Consumption, Hoarsness, Spitting of Blood and Severe Coughs. Dr. McClintock's Dyspeptic Elizir.—Dys pepsia is a common complaint with persons of edentary habits. The physical sy tem becomes weakened by either went of exercise; or want of proper diet suitable to the condition or occupation. Improper food, or too much taken into the stamach, cannot be digested before rapid chemical changes take place that inflame mucus membranes, and carrying imperfect blood into the system, produces the most frightful suffering. Head-ache, Giddiness, Nervousness, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Flutulency and Costiveness. These are some symptoms of Dyspepsia. The Dyspepsia E ixir, taken in connection with the Vegetable Purgative Pills, in cases where there is much caustiveness, or with the anti-billious Pills, when the action of the Liver is irregular, will be found the most effectual

Dr McClintocks Remedies for Rheumaticm' Neuralgia, &c .- These excrutiating diseases are radically cured by taking Dr McClintock's Rheamatic Mixture in doses of a teaspoonful three times a day.
